MLK's "Letter from a Birmingham Jail"

Saturday, January 13, 9-10:30am

We have made a practice of setting aside time on the Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday weekend to pause and reflect on the words of this pastor and civil rights leader. His "Letter from a Birmingham Jail," written in 1963, is considered required reading on the topic of racial injustice, and since it was originally written to Christian and Jewish clergy, it is especially pertinent for us in the church. Join us to read and discuss this letter together. Sign up via the Rescom App to help us plan for materials.

Bible Study Resumes

This semester we will be studying several of the minor prophets - learning how biblical prophecy functions, exploring the text together and talking about how it applies to our lives. Women and men will meet on alternating Wednesday evenings, 7:30-9:00pm. Women begin on January 17, men on January 24. A women's morning study will be offered every other Thursday, 9:30-11:00am, starting January 25.
